

Why This Writing Conference Is Unique

One of the things that makes Peninsula Writers retreats/conferences special is that we do not just talk about writing---we write. Conference participants actually have time to compose and share what they have created in small writing groups every day. It is the reason we have gathered since 1984.

About Us

Peninsula Writers is a non-profit organization supporting writers and writing. Incorporated in 1984, PW was founded by a group of teachers who believed that the best way to teach writing was to be a writer. Over the years, Peninsula Writers' role has enlarged to encompass any writer from any walk of life. Much has changed since 1984, but the commitment to writing and the process involved, to the encouragement of writing, has not changed. We continue to celebrate writers and writing.

Housing Fee Due in Full if You Cancel

Once you commit to a retreat/conference, you are responsible for paying your housing fee in full, even if you are unable to attend the conference.

Once you have reserved your space, if you are unable to attend the conference for any reason, you are still responsible for paying your full share of the housing expense if you or PW are unable to find someone else to take your place. When housing is reserved, PW guarantees that rental to the provider ; if you cannot attend, that housing cost still has to be covered. In an effort to keep our conferences as affordable as possible, it is the policy of Peninsula Writers not to pass this expense to other members, but to collect the funds from the original registrant if a replacement registrant cannot be found. This policy holds true for those receiving scholarship funds for housing. If you have received a scholarship, but are unable to attend the conference, your scholarship will be voided. If a replacement registrant cannot be found, you will be responsible for the full portion of your housing costs.

ABOUT THE COTTAGES & PRICING:

Pricing is per bed based on the number of beds filled. Final costs and cottges cannot be determined until after the registration deadline. Price goes down the more people register. ( See chart.) All cottages are one story except PILGRIM HOUSE. Suggested occupancies are indicated below. We will try to honor specific cottage requests, but space is limited; participants will be matched to openings until capacity is reached on the Wandawood campus. You will receive cottage assignment confirmation by July 14th. Conference organizers will contact you personally if any changes arise after that date.

BED AVAILABILITY is included below, to help participants determine their cottage preference. Again, every effort will be made to place you in your cottage choice, but such placement cannot be guaranteed.
